awesome game, no one plays it..... If you're willing to make this game 60% off, you should be willing to set that price as retail price.

This game is amazing and fun to play.

Too bad nobody plays it. I got it at launch and I was hoping the game would take off like rocket league did, but i was sadly mistaken. Now with only 1 hour of game time in the game and a whole 3 matches played with the same people at launch and nobody else ever since, I wish I could get a refund.

This game needs to be free to play for a year or something with microtransactions for it to take off. I see no other way to revive this game. Hopefully the devs will do it. I know the new company that bought it out clearly didn't have the passion the original devs had for this game. Its sad they wasted their money on a game and took it straight to the dumps.

Do something with the game. Make it free if you don't plan on doing anything else, i mean come on for real. I can't refund now. Either get people in this game or give me my money back.. One of the worst games I've ever played with empty online servers. The only people that play it are desperately trying to hold their online records flexing that micropenis. I adore the Tron look but it doesn't deliver.. some popular a s s youtuber better make a video about this game so it gets revived cuz its amazing. This game is as good as it is dead. Sad because I want to play it but its impossible to find a match.
