If you're a Bengali movie connoisseur, then chances are that you've seen this movie already. It has been one of the most talked about releases for the past year and it is now showing up on our TV screens. But if not, don't worry! This blog post will tell you all about Gangster and what it's going to be like. You'll also get a sneak preview of a few scenes from the film so that you know what to expect before going out on Saturday evening to catch it in the theater. Gangster is a film directed by : Anurag Basu, and starring Dev and Chitrangada. The primary shooting is finished and post-production was completed in June 2008. It was released on 25 September 2008 across India. The movie is inspired by the life of the gangster Haji Mastan. The film focuses on a fictional character, Adil "Aadil" Khan (Dev), who travels from Bombay to Calcutta to meet with a movie producer named Shamsheer Ali (Zakir Hussain) who has offered him a major role in his next movie. He hires a cab and travels to meet with the producer. Adil is rude and difficult to please, and Shamsheer has no idea what to make of him until he finds out that he is an actor. Shamsheer tries his best, but Adil's background is such that the only thing he seems to care about is money. Shamsheer treats Adil like a kid, and when Adil learns this, he starts treating Shamsheer like one too. This proves to be a bone of contention between Shamsheer and his wife Tasneem (Zarina Wahab), who sees in this relationship the potential for her husband stepping out on her completely. Adil meets a beautiful girl, Shabnam (Chitrangada), who is running from the police for committing a crime. This encounter changes Adil's life. He starts to see what it means to have a respectable life; he wants to be in love, he wants to make money in the right way. The story is still unfolding in front of us, but what we do know is that Gangster is an action-packed movie with light-hearted humor. The theme of love and honor will play throughout the movie, along with action sequences that are both thrilling and entertaining. This film is loaded with suspense, drama, romance and love. Like other Bengali movies it will have a beautiful storyline, beautiful music and the best of Bengali actors. The movie will be released on 25 September 2008 across India. The crew members include :- Cinematographer - Bharathiraja Director of Photography - Mrinal Sen Music director - Amit Trivedi Choreographer - Malashri Kaul
